Dear Ms. Glasgow:

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) received the enclosed congressional inquiry on February 24, 2006. After reviewing this inquiry, the Office of General Counsel at DHS has determined that it would be more appropriate for the Department of the Treasury to respond to questions on the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS) process. On March 28, 2006, DHS forwarded this letter to the Department of the Treasury for handling and response. If I can be of further assistance, please let me know.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Julie A. Dunne", followed by a horizontal line.

Julie A. Dunne
Deputy Executive Secretary
